

NETWORK MOVIE

Network Movie Film- und Fernsehproduktion GmbH & Co KG was founded in 1998 and is based in the two important German media locations of Cologne and Hamburg. With about 40 employees, Network Movie has its core business in the production of high-value TV movies and TV series. Movies include the successful and award-winning dramas such as EIN GROSSER AUFBRUCH, adaptations of renowned literature such as DIE FLUT IST PÜNKTLICH or DEUTSCHSTUNDE by Siegfried Lenz as well as DAS KINDERMÄDCHEN by Elisabeth Herrmann and the Berlinale contribution LOLLIPOP MONSTER. Feature TV series cover, inter alia, NEBEN DER SPUR, UNTER ANDEREN UMSTÄNDEN, NACHTSCHICHT and DER KOMMISSAR UND DAS MEER, and with SOKO KÖLN the company produces a long-running cop series, already in its 14th season.

Network Movie pairs up distinguished writers with renowned, award-winning and promising directors and is proficient in finding the best talent pools to produce high-quality fiction that impresses critics and audiences alike. The company has been praised and rewarded with numerous TV awards (e.g. the GOLDFENE KAMERA and the DEUTSCHER FERNSEHPREIS), for its courage in developing new formats and the aspiration to produce an upscale as well as entertaining program.

Since its foundation, Network Movie has produced more than 700 hours of fiction TV and established itself as one of the important providers of program content for the German and European Film- and TV markets.

Alongside its holding company ZDF, Network Movie produces for other German broadcasters as well as cinema, and has been involved in international co-productions for many years with a special focus on Scandinavian TV. After participating in Danish and Swedish successes such as THE KILLING or WALLANDER, Network Movie took the lead in an international co-production with THE TEAM in 2014 and is continuously building up valuable hands-on experience in developing, financing and producing cross-border projects.
